Hello, my name is Ali. I will tell you about my diary last week. On Sunday, I played football with my friends. On Monday, my father decided to take us to the funfair. It was great and nice. On Tuesday, I asked my father if I could go shopping, but he said no, and we visited our grandmother. On Wednesday, my brother told me to clean his room. In the next day, I rode my bike and I went to the park. On Friday, I studied all my school subjects and my mother helped me do my homework.
