Mark Twain was an American writer. He was born in 1835 in Florida in the USA. He lived with his big family and had six brothers.

When Mark was four, his family lived in a town near the river. Mark loved to watch the boats in the river. Many of his stories were about boats and rivers.

When Mark was 11, his father died. Mark had to work to help his family. So, he worked as a writer in a newspaper. His writings were funny, and people liked to read his stories. In 1861, Mark started writing short stories. His stories were funny too and full of adventure. He wrote 28 books.

Mark Twain died in 1910, at the age of 74 in New York, the USA.
