Mustafa lived in a small village in Egypt. He was born in 1990 in Asyut. He liked sports very much but he loved football more. When he was a child; he liked running, jumping and swimming. When he was nine years old, he and his family went to live in Cairo. He continued to play football there for his school club. In 2014, Mustafa joined Al Ahly sports Club. His first match with the Club was in October 2nd. It was against Al Hilal Club from Sudan. He scored two goals on that match. It was amazing! After three years, He was transferred to play in the Omani league and joined Fanja Club there. Unfortunately, he broke his leg in a car accident and was unable to continue playing with the Club. He returned to Egypt and retired from playing permanently. He continued his life as a coach at a sports academy in Cairo. He advised young children to be strong and encouraged them to follow their dreams.
