Ali, his father, his mother and his two younger brothers all went together. When they arrived, they found a spot near the water. The wadi was clear and flowing smoothly.

The family sat under a big tree, talking and laughing. Ali's mother started to cook lunch, and Ali helped her. After they finished cooking, they ate their lunch. Ali suggested going for a hike.

Ali led the way on the hike. He was excited and talked about the plants he knew. They saw two foxes running. It was their first time seeing foxes and they were excited to see such beautiful animals so close.

The weather changed, and the sun went behind the clouds. Ali's father told them to go back. It started raining, and they had to leave. Ali's father carried the younger brothers. When they reached the car, he told them to get in quickly. They drove away just before the wadi started to flood. It was very dangerous, and they were lucky to be able to leave rapidly. On their way home, they were happy to be safe.
